

St. Andrew's Church W. A. Meeling

To: St. Andrew's W. A. of Gleich. held a Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. J. O. Bogue. The president Mrs. Sturmerstein, on behalf of the W. A. welcomed Rev. and Mrs. Houghton to the meeting of the parish and extended an invitation for them to attend and conduct the election of officers for 1950 at the next meeting.

A presentation was made to Mrs. Bogue who is leaving Gleich and St. Andrew's W. A. She thanked every one kindly and asked that they come to see her in her new home in Calgary.

Mrs. P. Deshayes was given a small token in appreciation for her untiring efforts in caring for the Altar. Mrs. Deshayes was unable to attend the meeting owing to the illness of her husband.

The meeting decided to give the Sunday School a Christmas party sometime during the Christmas holidays. The little helpers that are under Sunday School age were each given a card and hamper.

Rev. Mr. Houghton announced there would be a family service in St. Andrew's Church on Christmas Day, at 12 o'clock noon and expressed a wish that all parents and their children attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Houghton were then presented with a Christmas hamper made up of individual parcels from each member of the W. A. Mr. Houghton expressed his appreciation and thanked each and every one of the W. A. on behalf of his wife and himself. The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. O. Kirstein

A resident of Cluny and Gleich districts for the past 49 years, Mrs. O. Kirstein died on December 13th at the age of 72 years.

Mrs. Kirstein was born in Barmen, Germany, on December 30th, 1876 and came to Canada with her parents 62 years ago to reside at Strathburg, Sask. After living there for some years married Rudolph Kirstein and came to Gleich with her husband and two children in 1901. Here they homesteaded. Some years later sold the homestead and bought a farm north of Cluny in 1908 and moving to the new place she resided there until her husband died in 1937. Upon his death she moved to her brother-in-law O. Kirstein's farm north and east of Gleich. In 1940 she and Mr. Kirstein were married. In 1944 they purchased a house in town and she has lived here since.

About three weeks previous to her death she was taken ill and was removed to the Basanah hospital. After a week or so there was brought home to Gleich where she remained until she died.

Mrs. Kirstein took a great interest in the Lutheran church of which she was a member. It was through her initiative that the members of the Lutheran Church here purchased the old Craigstair school house and moved it to Gleich and fixed it up for church purposes.

She is survived by her husband and 8 daughters: Mrs. S. Chase, Idaho; Mrs. H. Little, Nanaimo; Mrs. F. Hoffman, Staveley; Mrs. C. Hoff, Gleich and Mrs. A. Hoff, Cluny. Two were predeceased her: Willy in 1920 and Edward in 1943.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. P. Mohr in Gleich United Church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock after which interment was made in the family plot in the Gleich cemetery.

PLENTY IS NOT ENOUGH

"Plenty is not enough unless it is accompanied by the change of not a thing which spreads plenty to every plot of need."

This was the recent statement of a farm-machine service man from the prairies who from the security of a good job, was forced into the ranks of unemployment during the depression 15 years ago. He lies up with other single unemployed and get food in the "soup kitchens" of that day.

"We had no work," he said, "yet the bins of the nation overflowed with food. We were treated to a taste of 'poverty in the midst of plenty,' and driven by the wind of fear. Year after year, fear of cold and of being left to die! Having known regeneration on the bread line, I learned to hate the shoving which came from

Christmas Message

This is good news I am bringing you, News of great joy that is meant for all people—12:10—3:10—4:10.

Christmas is usually thought of a season of happiness, where friends, families get together.

We think of it as a festival of the children, with gay decorations, tinsel, and light carol singing, etc.

But in our world there are many who cannot enter into the gaieties because of the fear of want or the hopelessness of the future outlook.

Two thousand years ago the world was waiting for news "good news."

Using John's words, "In the beginning was the word and the word was with God; and the word was God."

That is the word that we are waiting for and continually remain restless till we hear it.

In our haste and busy days we seldom take time to hear the word, we do not feel that God maybe desires to speak to us, we would hear because of our "business."

He alone can bring Peace in our hearts, Christmas, therefore, should be a joyous time, a season of spiritual renewal, where most of our lusts and forced gaiety, is rather stern condemnation of our world.

We somehow feel that the opportunities are slipping away, in spite of our fancied security somehow, it is slipping away from our grasp.

Since then we have been through the most destructive war in history. Four years after peace, we face surplus and unemployment once more. But now we cannot shrink the ask of distributing plenty. The failure to face it will not mean just a few thousand unemployed. We may well lose our freedom to an ideology that uses hunger as a weapon, or find ourselves in the atomic war.

To solve a problem we must go to the root of the difficulty—human greed. Greed blocks the channels of generosity. Greed war is no answer. Change the human heart in the only answer. With this kind of change, we can work together for peace, unity, and order with freedom. It only requires our decision individually and corporately to stop ourselves, our own money and our inventiveness to work on the job. Time is a factor we must face squarely. We still have a chance as free men.

State control."

So the giddy round of pleasure to drawn our Conscience. We seek to evade our guilt.

We need a saviour more than ever, therefore, it should be with longing that we lift up our eyes to behold the light of Bethlehem's star and with eager hope return to the manger to behold that Jesus Christ whom God has raised up a strong savior as he promised by his prophets of old.

"What shall I offer to the king? Of Heaven, and of all the earth? Who have no golden offering to celebrate his birth.

No frankincense, no perfume sweet To anoint his wounded feet? Nothing of any worth? I would not offer thee O King A bundle from the mart.

This shall be my offering A humble contrite heart.—F.R. Taylor.

To all the people of Gleich and the surrounding districts, I would wish the very best, A Merry Christmas with the thought of the Master foremost.

A Happy and prosperous New Year. Prosperous in Spiritual growth and the riches that abide. God alone can help you, God alone can help you.

May God's richest blessing abide with you in 1950.

W. MORRISON Pastor, United Church Manse, Gleich.

Christmas Greetings

"Merry Christmas"

We have repeated these cheerful words a good many times, to our friends and loved ones. By the time we sit down to do justice to the turkey and trimmings, we will have enjoyed the fellowship of good cheer which make this time of year truly merry, especially where we find ourselves.

We enjoy the bounty of a prosperous, peaceful land. We value our way of life as a moderate, stable existence, with opportunity and freedom, free from extremes and the tragedy that results from irrational thought and deed.

In our private lives, in our way of doing business and in our system of government we enjoy true freedom—freedom of action and initiative tempered with responsibility.

However, we need only to glance at the front page of our daily newspaper to see that Christmas certainly we will be merry in many parts of the world. Indeed, even the celebration of Christmas—if anyone felt like celebrating—will be undoubtedly popular in some places. The Prince of Peace will be in the hearts of millions whose leaders are occupied with other, dark thoughts.

If these seem gloomy thoughts at this festive season, they may be offset by our appreciation of the fortunate position in which we find ourselves. But we must never forget that vigilance is the price of freedom and that we enjoy our Merry Christmas and the promise of a Happy New Year because others who went before us fought and died so that we might enjoy the freedoms we, today, take for granted.

May we never forget that and probably more than at any time in our history, remember that our Merry Christmas is something to treasure and protect, a holy day that symbolizes an entire outlook on life.

"A Merry Christmas to all."

Police: How, did the accident happen? Motorist: "My wife fell asleep in the back seat."

A speaker got up and talked for over an hour. Then said to his audience "I am sorry I spoke so long you see I haven't got a watch with me." "Yes" yelled a heckler "but there's a calendar on the wall!"

Sister: "He's so romantic. Everytime he speaks to me he starts 'Fair lady.'" Brother: "Romantic my eye! He used to be a street car conductor."

YOU can still find people who "don't believe in banks" . . . who keep their cash in old coffee pots, or hide it in the woodpile, or carry it around.

But most folk nowadays keep their money in bank accounts. They can get it whenever they want it; and they can pay their bills by cheque. Canadians have more than seven million such deposit accounts. In terms of Canada's adult population, that makes it practically unanimous.

The banks, in turn, know they must earn this confidence by giving you the best service they know how.

Today you can take your account to any bank you choose. And what is in your bank book is strictly between you and your bank. It is your own private business.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH
Sunday December 25th.
Holy Communion and Christmas service at 12 o'clock.
Rev. D. Houghton, (Incumbent.)

The Spirit of Christmas
For nearly two thousand years the world has celebrated Christmas and yet its real meaning has been expressed in the traditional phrase "Peace on Earth, Goodwill toward Men," has not been fully realized. Nevertheless, as long as we have Christmas, we have hope. It is the message of Christmas that alone can give to man, and to nations, the spirit which may unite them in the urgent task of creating a new and better world—a World of Peace. In other words, Peace will come to the world when men and nations practice in their day-to-day living the simple, but admirable virtues of Faith, Hope and Charity.

The past year has brought its share of disappointments and failures to the people of Western Canada. Not every farmer nor every community reaped a satisfactory harvest. There have been individual catastrophes and regional climatic disasters. The drought of 1949 was of no little concern. On the whole, however, there is a general atmosphere of prosperity throughout the Prairie Provinces. A point of great importance is this. The farmers of this country still possess complete faith in their ability to produce food abundantly to feed a hungry world.

In the years ahead, let us not be too concerned that life will be too abundant, that we and others in the world will have too much good food, too many clothes, too much leisure. Rather, let us give thought to feeding, clothing, and sheltering ourselves and our neighbors better, putting farm products to further use in industry, trading willingly and freely so that the food we produce will reach the people who need it. Above all, let us resolve to take better care of our soil. To these ends this Department will do its best to make a contribution. On behalf of the Line Elevator Company, our sponsors, we extend best wishes to all our readers for a "Most Merry Christmas" and a "Happy and Prosperous 1950."

THE ROMANS STARTED CHRISTMAS BOXES

Boxing Day has been a day of gifts to public servants since Roman times. It originated as a pagan custom. For the Romans observed the rites during their winter feast of Saturnalia. Later, when the people became Christians, the gifts were handed during Mass to the priests who placed them into boxes. The feast was then known as Christmas Mass and the boxes as Christmas Boxes. These boxes were of earthenware and could not be opened except by being broken.

All manner of tradesmen soon realized that the idea was a good one, and it became a common practice to apprentices and others to take a box round to all their business acquaintances, singing carols the while.

By the time Peppys wrote his famous diary, Christmas Boxes were well established, and he mentions them several times in his writings. Swift also has a word to say about them in his "Journal of Stella," written in 1710: "By the Lord Harry I shall be undone here with Christmas Boxes."

One public servant, the "bottler" who enjoyed the privilege of soliciting Christmas Boxes was in some respect the forerunner of the post man often being commissioned to deliver letters. At the approach of Christmas he would push poms of his own composition under the doors of townsmen whom he had served. They were reminders that recognition was expected on Boxing Day.

The story is told of a secretary with a passion for detail and exactness. It seems that her boss died suddenly and left an important business letter unmailed. Before posting it the secretary added the following explanation below his signature: "Since writing the above I have died."

She: "You look very down hearted."
He: "Yes, my wife has been away for six weeks and she's just come back." She: "And does that make you unhappy?" He: "Well, I told her I spent all my evenings at home. Today the light came and it's only for 10 cents."
